THE ALDERMEN.

Business Transacted at the Board Meeting Last Night.

The board met, with Mayor Taylor in the chair, all present except Bogart, Elam and Shaw.

Alderman Walker, who was elected to succeed Alderman McKinney, resigned, was sworn in by the mayor. The resignation of Thos. J. Shaw was filed and, on motion, was accepted.

Major Steadman, representing T. J. McAdoo, appeared before the board and asked that the franchise heretofore granted the American Telephone and Telegraph Co. be revoked, and Alderman Mendenhall offered an ordinance repealing the ordinance heretofore enacted granting the franchise.

Mr. J. N. Wilson, representing the American company, asked that the matter be postponed till the next meeting in order that both sides may be heard. On motion of Alderman Merritt, Mr. Wilson's request was granted.

On motion of Alderman Lewis, the board went into the election of a successor to T. J. Shaw. H. C. Berger was placed in nomination, and there being no further nominations, the clerk was instructed to cast the vote of the board for Mr. Berger, and he was accordingly declared elected.

The contract for street lighting with the present company was ordered renewed for a term of one year, at the present schedule.

The board adjourned.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.

"As We See It," An Irish Musical Comedy. Tonight.

Our theatre-goers will have a mirth-provoking musical comedy at the Academy of Music tonight that will give them plenty of fun. In speaking of the play in Greenville, S. C., the News of that city says:

"As We See It," Fate Goodbar's Irish musical comedy, drew a large and very appreciative audience last night at Gower's Hall. To say that all who went were pleased, is putting it mildly. The mirth was kept at fever heat from start to finish, roars of laughter resounding for several blocks around.

"The piece has just enough plot to keep up interest, and furnishes excellent opportunities for some very funny situations, and a number of refined specialties, far ahead of the average."

"Miss May Cook is not only a charming little actress in her part of Dolly, but responded to several encores on her vocal selections and took the house by storm with her cornet; possessing a wonderfully strong and sweet soprano voice, and fully sustaining her reputation as a great cornetist."

Tickets now on sale at Gardner's drug store.

THE PEACE COMMISSIONERS

Were Landed in New York This Morning.

HURRIED ON TO WASHINGTON.

A Lynching in Indiana—McKinley in a Quandary Over Southern Race Question.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Dec. 24.—The peace commissioners were the first passengers to land from the St. Louis this morning. They started quickly for Washington, where it is said the treaty will be delivered to the president this afternoon. Judge Day said he could not talk until his mission was ended.

When asked about the hundred thousand dollars pay for Judge Day, his wife said: "We only wish the president would pay that much.—We would divide with you." President Day said the matter was too absurd to discuss.

Special arrangements were made for handling the commissioners' baggage. All of the party except Mrs. Reid went to Washington, by special train.

LYNCHING IN INDIANA.

Scalsburg, Ind., Dec. 24.—Marion Taylor, who has been in jail since Nov. 3rd, when he attempted to kill his wife by shooting and then turned the revolver on himself, inflicting wounds in his head and abdomen, was taken from the jail at one o'clock this morning, by a mob of about fifty masked men, and hanged to a tree in the court house yard.

IN A QUANDARY.

Washington, Dec. 24.—President McKinley is in a quandary over the Southern race question. Persons sharing his closest confidence say his eyes are pretty well opened to the real dangers to which the presence of a large colored vote subjects the states of the extreme south.

They say McKinley is so impractical visionary, but is as fully convinced of the necessity of white supremacy as are the men who have received and entertained him at Montgomery, Savannah, and other southern cities during the last fortnight. Certainly his official acts and public addresses bear out this view.

It has been long apparent that whatever might be the legal consideration for doing anything for the North Carolina negroes as well as others who suffered ill, there is no hopes that the administration will bestir itself very much in their behalf.

British Following French.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Kondon, Dec. 25.—British gunboats acting on hurry orders from London, are following the French gunboats which have been sent up the Yang Tsiang in China. The French ships were ordered up the river on account of the rebels attacking French Catholic missionaries.

Strike in Paris.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Paris, Dec. 24.—The French grocers strike is causing much trouble to Christmas shoppers. There is much confusion. Disaffection is spreading and several shops have been wrecked. Police are guarding some districts. The allied unions have voted to join the strike.

Is It Fun You Want.

If so go to the Academy of Music tonight. The "As We See It" company will give you fun for Christmas. This is a musical farce-comedy, just such as will make you laugh. They come endorsed by the press as a first-class comedy, full of specialties, dances, songs, etc. Doors will open at the academy tonight at 7:30, performance begins at 8:30. Prices reduced to 25, 35 and 50 cents. Seats on sale at Gardner's drugstore.

In Jail for Stealing.

Officer Pearce arrested W. J. H. Thomas this morning for stealing. He has been employed at the dry goods store of D. Bendheim & son, and has been stealing for some time: His girl dressed simply "out o' sight" but Mr. Pearce stopped all that this morning, when he searched her house and found the goods.

Jeffries and Whittington landed Will Thomas, colored, last night for stealing a watch.

Why not give something useful and "usable" for a Christmas present along with the sweets and fancy goods? Here is a list from which you can select something for most any member of the family. Ladies' kid and jersey gloves, overgarters, ladies' and gentlemen's house slippers, rugs, combs and brushes, capes, baby saques and hoods, gents' gloves, boys' neckties, baby shoes, girls' shoes, boys' shoes, lace and tapestry curtains, children's overshoes, nice towels, table linens and napkins, counterpanes, blankets, lap robes, children's stockings, handkerchiefs, and many other articles that we will take pleasure in showing you. Thacker & Brockmann.

NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News From Our Neighbor Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU. HIGH POINT, N. C. Dec. 23

With the exception of Rev. Mr. Kelsey preaching tomorrow night at Oak Hill, we may expect the usual services at all of the churches unless further announced.

Mrs. A. Dorsett left this morning for New York on a visit.

Mr. E. D. Steele returned last night from Washington, D. C.

"Wusser" Parker and Lesley Cartland, of Guilford College, have arrived to spend the holidays at home.

Miss Cora Pitts, a teacher in the graded schools at Reidsville, is spending the holidays at home.

W. J. Newton has gone to his home at Winston, and J. W. Crowell to his home in Williamston, to spend Xmas.

Miss Kate Widby, of Lenoir, arrived yesterday to spend the holidays with her sister, Mrs. R. J. Owens.

The factories shut down today at noon and will remain so until about January 2.

We regret our failure to report the Episcopal Sunday School entertainment of night before last, which was not so large, but possibly one of the best that we have had.

Mrs. Ida Beeson, of the Southern Finishing and Warehouse Co., of Greensboro, will spend the holidays at home here.

We regret very much to see some people beginning to "booze" before Christmas. They expect to be "in it" right by tomorrow. Poor fellows! If you are in the habit of getting loaded, try and hold off until after Xmas at least, and break a record. Any "old fool" can get drunk, but it takes a hustler to break a record.

We are very glad indeed to know that we are of the "political hue" who are receiving invitations to the reception to be given by the Young Ladies Democratic Reading Club, complimentary to the democratic young men and visiting young ladies next Friday evening Dec. 30th, from 9 to 11 p. m.

The Methodist and Presbyterian Sunday school Christmas entertainments will be Monday night.

Prof. J. J. Blair, superintendent of the Winston graded schools, Prof. Chas. F. Tomlinson, principal of the West End graded school and Prof. D. H. Blair, will spend Christmas at home here and Archdale.

The new engines and boiler have been taken around to the power house in the day time of course, but there is not much sign of lights yet.

There is one thing our Christmas visitors can see here that they can't see anywhere else, that is a "young mountain" of red dirt on Main street. And there is one they cannot see; that is are lights in the town.

"AS WE SEE IT."

Bright, Clean Comedy at Academy of Music Tonight.

"As We See It," Fate Goodbar's latest Irish musical comedy comes to the Academy of Music tonight. It is said to be one of the brightest, cleanest comedies on the road—being a rollicking, mirth-maker—original, strictly up-to-date and unlike many of the late compositions, absolutely devoid of any objectionable features. Mr. Goodbar called at this office on his arrival and wishes to announce that "As We See It" is strictly high-class and refined and is a ladies and children's attraction as well as for their brothers and husbands. The company is a large and strong one consisting of twenty or more operatic, farce-comedy and specialty people. Popular prices will prevail, 25, 35 and 50c.

Thanks to Col. J. S. Carr.

Mr. Editor—I want to thank that noble hearted Christian gentleman, Col. J. S. Carr, who has never forgotten a minister of the gospel, for his kindness to me. I am in possession of a fine turkey which he ordered from Mr. J. F. Phoenix for me. May God's choicest blessings rest upon him, and may he live long to do good for his God and his country.

Madrid, Dec. 24.—Premier Sagasta is worse today.

When you ask for De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve don't accept a counterfeit or imitation. There are more cases of Piles being cured by this, than all others combined. Howard Gardner.

At Havana.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Havana, Dec. 24.—The cruiser Cincinnati has arrived here.

On account of a strike at the factory Thacker & Brockmann received a shipment of men's four dollar tan shoes way behind time. Of course the manufacturer had to make a concession in the price and as Thacker & Brockmann want these shoes to move off quickly, they have made the price $3.00 straight. If you want a pair of the very best, new up-to-date winter $4.00 tan shoes at $3.00, now is your chance.

CHRISTMAS IN WASHINGTON.

How It Will Be Passed at the White House.

WHERE CONGRESSMEN WILL GO.

Kitchin Is Opposed to Increase of Army—Pearson and White Favor It—Other Matters.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Dec. 24.—At the various executive departments of the government, it is learned that most of the cabinet officials will spend Christmas day in Washington, though there may be one or two exceptions. Secretary Bliss will probably spend the day in New York City and Secretary Long may go to his home in Hingham, Massachusetts, but it is hardly likely. Secretaries Hay, Alger and Wilson will remain in Washington city.

At the white house the day will be celebrated on a somewhat larger scale than last year. Although there are children at the white house, as was the case during the Cleveland administration, and the Christmas tree part of the programme will be missing, Mrs. McKinley is fond of young people, and will be surrounded by quite a group. The festivities at the white house will be observed on Christmas Monday. On Sunday morning President McKinley will attend divine services at the Metropolitan Methodist Episcopal church.

All of the executive departments of the government, and of the district government, will be closed for half a day today, and of course the entire day Monday. Yesterday afternoon the clerks at most of the departments were paid a portion of their salaries due them. During the remainder of the Christmas holidays, with the exception of New Year's day the departments will be kept open on full time, which is from 9 a. m. until 4 p. m.

Several of the leading officials of the government have left the city for home to spend the holidays. At the department of justice it was said that Assistant Attorney General Boyd, of North Carolina would spend Christmas day at his home in the state.

Among the North Carolina delegation in Congress very few can be found in the city. Senators Butler and Pritchard, will both spend the greater portion of the holidays in the state, as will also Representatives Kitchin, Skinner, Fowler, Strowd and Martin.

Representative Pearson, who is comfortably arranged for the winter with his family, will spend Christmas day in Washington, and will be here during the holiday season.

Representative White and family will remain in Washington during the recess, though Mr. White may take a trip to his district next week.

Since the adjournment of congress Representative Hay, of Virginia, has been busy drawing the minority report which will be signed by the democratic members of the house committee on Military Affairs, upon the Hull army reorganization bill. The report was filed with the clerk of the house yesterday afternoon. Representative Hay, speaking upon the subject the other day, stated that the bill would be about the first important measure to be taken up by the house after the Christmas holidays. The indications are that the bill will pass the house by perhaps a strict party vote.

The position of the North Carolina delegation upon this measure is not definitely known. It can be stated, however, that Representative Kitchin is opposed to the increase of the army to 100,000 men, and will vote against the bill. Representatives Pearson and White have announced their intention of supporting the bill, and it is fair to presume that the remainder of the delegation, with one or two exceptions, will vote for the bill. Representative Martin will probably vote in opposition. Mr. Martin is a member of the committee on Military Affairs, and it is said that he signed the minority report prepared by Mr. Hay, but this is not known definitely.

Miss Miller, of North Carolina, is visiting Washington as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Orme. She was among the house guests yesterday afternoon at the debut of Miss Elizabeth B. Orme. A feature of the young lady's presentation was the fact that the holly and mistletoe which was used profusely in the decorations, was sent by friends of the family from North Carolina.

Among North Carolina people in Washington is Mr. L. M. Scott, of Greensboro, who is at the Metropolitan Hotel for a few days, being in Washington on a business trip.

The Misses Adelaide Williams, and L. Caldwell, of Charlotte, are in the city for a few days.

A mong other North Carolina people in Washington are Miss Grace Lanham, of Salem; Mr. H. R. Scott, of Reidsville; Mr. H. F. McCarty, of Lexington, and George A. Thompson, of Thomasville.

Special service Pearlridge, Polk county, from Millspring, North Carolina, will be discontinued from January 23rd, 1899.

LEADERS OF THEIR RACE.

Prominent Colored Men Who Are Good North Carolinians.

There were two colored men in Raleigh yesterday who are good North Carolinians—H. C. Tyson, of Carthage, and Charles E. Lane, of Asheville. Both hold good paying offices under the civil service in Washington, D. C., but retain their citizenship in North Carolina, own property here, and love the state.

They are both trustees for the A. and M. College for the colored youth at Greensboro and are interested to see it become to the North Carolina what Booker Washington's school has come to be to the Alabama negro. It is such intelligent colored men as these who will be the real leaders of their race when economy, thrift and industry have a larger place in the negro's life than politics. And that day will arrive on the 6th of January, 1899.—News and Observer.

Aguinaldo Wants to Declare War On Uncle Sam.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Manila, Dec. 24.—The insurgent congress has unanimously adopted the Philippines constitution which has been under discussion for several weeks. Aguinaldo and his cabinet had fully approved the constitution previous to its adoption yesterday.

At the meeting of the council Aguinaldo submitted the draft of a proposed message to congress, in which he says that under the present relations with the United States he ought to be authorized to declare war. This caused the cabinet to resign.

CHRISTMAS-TIDE.

Let us all rejoice at the anniversary of the birth of the Saviour of mankind; but let that rejoicing be in the proper manner. Yes, before another issue of the Telegram reaches its readers Christmas will have come and gone. It is the one event or epoch in the history of the world which carries glad tidings to the heart of every man—a Christmas present, priceless and invaluable to every human being—whether it is accepted or not.

Christmas comes on Sunday this year—the sacred Sabbath—the same day of the week on which the Saviour rose from the dead. This should, in great measure, diminish the drunkenness and debauchery, commonly indulged in by a large per cent. of people on Christmas day. It is strange that the birthday of our Lord should be so desecrated.

Let the day be observed in the right way. A man doesn't have to get drunk to feel good. In the language of the Chatham Record:

Let us all rejoice at the anniversary of the birth of the Saviour of mankind—the greatest event in the annals of time—but let our rejoicing be in a proper manner. Let our joy properly express our appreciation of the blessing bestowed upon us and all mankind by the birth of the Lamb of God who taketh away the sins of the world. Let not our joy be selfish, but let us increase our enjoyment of Christmas by contributing to the pleasure and happiness of others. Even the hardest hearts are touched and softened at the joyous Christmas-tide, and every body feels more charitable and forgiving to all others—even towards those who have been unfriendly. As Christ forgave his enemies and those who had despitely used him, even so in like manner should we in celebrating His blessed birth be more inclined to forgive those who have wronged us."

As Christmas falls on Sunday, (tomorrow) the Telegram will observe Monday as a holiday to give its employees their annual holiday outing. We will, therefore, greet you again on Tuesday afternoon, Dec. 27. We wish for you, one and all, a very "merry Christmas and a happy New Year."

Two Pointed Questions Answered.

What is the use of making a better article than your competitor if you can not get a better price for it?

Ans.—As there is no difference in the price the public will buy only the better, so that while our profits may be smaller on a single sale they will be much greater in the aggregate.

How can you get the public to know your make is the best?

If both articles are brought prominently before the public both are certain to be tried and the public will very quickly pass judgment on them and use only the better one.

This explains the large sale on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The people have been using it for years and have found that it can always be depended upon. They may occasionally take up with some fashionable novelty put forth with exaggerated claims, but are certain to return to the one remedy that they know to be reliable, and for coughs, colds and croup there is nothing equal to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. For sale by C. E. Holton.

Professor Frederick Starr, of Chicago, Ill., has started to study Mexican savages, in the interest of science.

Pains in the chest when a person has a cold indicate a tendency toward pneumonia. A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on to the chest over the seat of pain will promptly relieve the pain and prevent the threatened attack of pneumonia. This same treatment will cure a lame back in a few hours. Sold by C. E. Holton.

MILLER COMMITTED TO JAIL.

The Safe Blower Bound Over to Federal Court.

Quite an interesting case came up for examination before United States Commissioner John Nichols on yesterday morning. Charles A. Miller was arraigned on the charge of robbing the postoffice at Murfreesboro, N. C., April 7, 1898.

Thos. Devereaux, Esq., appeared for Miller, while Postoffice Inspector H. T. Gregory conducted the case against Miller. Several witnesses from Murfreesboro and vicinity were examined for the prosecution, and while no witnesses were introduced for Miller, his case was well presented in a strong argument in his behalf by his attorney, Mr. Devereaux. The examination resulted in Miller's being held for trial at May term of United States court, and in default of $1,000 bond he was committed to Wake jail to await trial. —Morning Post.

Constipation prevents the body from ridding itself of waste matter. De Witt's Little Early Risers will remove the trouble and cure Sick Headache, Biliousness, Inactive Liver and clear the Complexion. Small, sugar coated, do not gripe or cause nausea. Howard Gardner.

Mr. Gregory Leaves.

Mr. H. T. Gregory, United States Postoffice Inspector, who has been here since the opening of federal court, left today for Greensboro, where he will spend Christmas.

Mr. Gregory has been assigned territory in Pennsylvania, with headquarters at Altoona. This is in the line of promotion, and his many friends will be pleased to learn of it. It was the result of Mr. Gregory's tireless efforts and splendid detective work that so many criminals were convicted at the court just concluded. He is one of the most valuable men in the postal secret service. —Morning Post.

Some Eyesight
people who have defective

seem to think anything will do so it is a glass in front of their eyes. This is not right. Each eye should be thoroughly examined and if GLASSES will correct the defect, have nothing but those that thoroughly meet the demand. The same principle applies to the TEETH. My practice and whole study and attention is confined to THE TEETH and THE EYES. Consultation and Examination Free.

How to Look Good.

Good looks are really more than skin deep, depending entirely on a healthy condition of the vital organs. If the liver is inactive you have a bilious look; if your stomach is disordered you have a dyspeptic look; if your kidneys are affected you have a pinched look. Secure good health and you will surely have good looks. "Electric Bitters" is a good alternative and tonic. Acts directly on the stomach, liver and kidneys, purifies the blood, cures pimples, blotches and boils, and gives a good complexion. Every bottle guaranteed. Sold at C. E. Holton's drug store. 50 cents per bottle.

A BEAUTIFUL OPERA.

The Audience Last Night Was Greatly Delighted.

Without particularizing to any great extent, it is just to the Andrews Opera company, who presented "Martha"
at the Opera House last night, to say that the audience was supremely delighted. This charming opera was beautifully staged, and the work of Miss French, Miss Clayton, Mr. Howard and Mr. Walters, was especially pleasing and deserving of highest praise. They were supported ably,
Mr. Johnson as Sir Tristram and Mr.
McCarthy as the sheriff, doing well their parts. The "Last rose of summer" sang by Miss French, completely captivated the audience.

We congratulate Manager Griffith on the opening of the Greensboro Opera House. If all the shows staged there are up to the high standard of the Andrews company, he will continue to do business.

The Carriers' Annuity.

In pursuance of an established custom the carriers of this paper will call on the subscribers on their respective routes on Monday morning and present their annual holiday greeting, in the shape of a neat Christmas card.
Remember these boys do not come as beggars, in any sense. They work for pay and have received it. But ever since the morning stars sang together, nearly nineteen hundred years ago, in honor of the greatest Christmas gift ever made, the custom of making each others' hearts glad by giving presents at this festive date in each recurring year has been in vogue. We are sure, therefore, that if any one feels that the carrier who has faithfully served him for a year has any claim upon his friendship and desires to make him a present, it will not be refused.

He Came This Morning.

Santa Claus called at our office this morning and said he was instructed by W. A. Watson and Co. to leave a sack of one of their best brands of flour "Purity" here. He left it and we are grateful. Messrs. Watson & Co. have our warmest thanks for this token of remembrance, on the occasion, when Christmas presents are always in order.

When People Talk

enthusiastically of something they have purchased in these days of Bargains,

It MUST Amount to Something

Our store has been overcrowded the past week. Why did they buy here? This is a problem easy to solve: Because The Fishblate-Katz Company gave the people the Best Bargains for the Least Money. But last week's wonderful selling must continue, therefore we have again marked down some of our finest and best clothing at the same low prices. The past week men bought and told their friends, and their friends bought, and so on.

HERE IS THE REASON—Your Money Back in a Minute, if You Wish.

at double speed, and here they go:

$20.00 Suits	for $8.50	$ 7.50 Suits	for $3.00
17.50 Suits	for 6.50	6.50 Suits	for 2.50

13.50 Suits	for 5.00	12.00 Overcoats	for 4.50
